

TOYO SODA'S VINYL CHLORIDE MONOMER PLANT AT YOKKAICHI COMPLEX

To meet the growing demand for the petrochemical products, Toyo Soda expanded its manufacturing operations in 1972 to a new chemical complex at Yokkaichi, near Nagoya, where modern units were built for the production of monomeric vinyl chloride and electrolytic caustic soda.