

The TSK Model HLC 811 is a high temperature type gel permeation chromatograph with a total modular design. This model features a high speed analysis, variable temperature range from room temperature to 150°C, high sensitive detector, rotary syphon flow monitor, digital indication, and high performance. It just realizes the GPC equipment ideal.