

Above shown is the Yokkaichi Plant which produces an aromatic resin PETCOAL by the continuous polymerization of C_9 fractions derived from the steam-cracking of petroleum naphtha. The production capacity of PETCOAL is 15,000 tonnes per year.